

HOLINESS VOLUME 2 (2016) ISSUE 1

Holiness & the Body

CONTENTS

Janet Morley Editorial 1

Peer-reviewed articles

Hannah Bucke Moving into the neighbourhood:
embodiment, sacrament and ritual in urban mission 5

Jill Marsh Towards an ethnically diverse British Methodist Church 23

Short articles

Charles Wallace Confessions of a Methodist foodie: how tradition can feed our (good) habits and nourish our souls 53

Greg Obong-Oshotse Dying to live: a personal reflection on the spiritual discipline of fasting 65

Charity Hamilton When bodies 'fail': illness and incarnation 75

Heather Noel-Smith Divine defragmentation 85

Heather Walton 'And a sword will pierce your soul also':
reflections on the holy mother and the holy child 93

Barbara Glasson Falling over and walking anyway 105

Rosemary Power Modern pilgrimage in the west of Ireland 115

What have the sermons of John Wesley ever done for us?

Frances Young The Duty of Constant Communion 127

Reviews

Clive Marsh Knowing your right from your left: brain science and the future of Christian mission. A review of Iain McGilchrist, The Master and His Emissary: The Divided Brain and the Making of the Western World. 133